

Topics

The 6th HUMANIST Conference will be host on 13th and 14th June 2018 in the Hague, The Netherlands.

The scope of the conference covers a wide range of topics on Human Factors in Transport. The 2018 conference has a special focus on the Human Factors issues related to transition towards self-driving vehicles.

Topics for this conference symposium include, but are not limited to:

- o Automated Driving and ADAS
- o Human Machine Interaction
- o Transition of Control
- o Driver state
- o Driver workload and task demand

- o Interaction of (partly) automated vehicles with vulnerable road users
- o Human factors in mixed traffic conditions
- o Older drivers / novice drivers
- o Naturalistic Driving studies
- o Eco-driving

The Humanist Conference 2018 will provide you with good insight into research in the area of Human Factors in Transport that have been carried out and are presently underway around the globe. The conference is a meeting place for the experts in the field and offers plenty of opportunities to interact.

Registration

Registrations can be made through the conference website.
<http://www.humanist-vce.eu/major-activities/conference/the-hague-2018/>

Full fee : 375€
Early bird rate (until 16-04-18): 275€
Humanist member full fee : 300€
Humanist member
early bird rate (until 16-04-18) : 250€
1 day - full fee : 150€
1 day -early bird rate (until 16-04-18)- 100€

Registration includes :
2 days conference
Conference dinner at
Scheveningen beach - 13th June
Lunch and refreshment breaks on all three days
Entry to Madurodam (outdoor miniature park)
during all three days

Email contact :

charlotte.voegele@ifsttar.fr

Organised by

With the support of

6TH HUMANIST CONFERENCE

13th, 14th
JUNE 2018

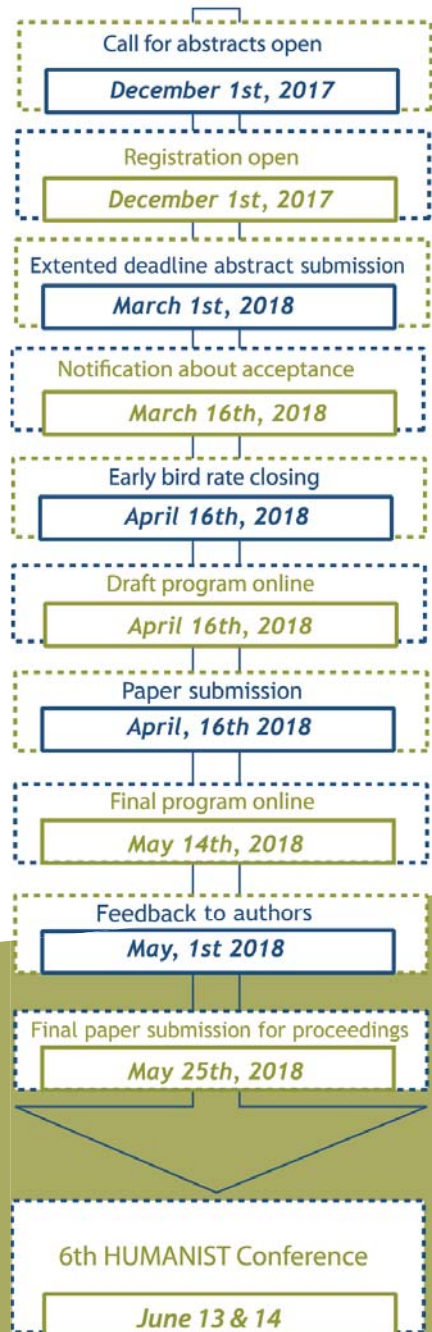

The Hague
Netherlands

www.humanist-vce.eu/major-activities/conference/the-hague-2018/

Significant dates

Authors & Submission

Papers

All papers accepted after abstract submission phase will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee. Based on scope, scientific quality and originality and clarity of the research papers will be rated. Deadline for papers submission is 16 April 2018.

Conference proceedings

Authors of accepted abstracts are invited to submit a short paper to be included in the peer-reviewed conference proceedings.

Special issue

Authors of the best papers from the conference will be invited to prepare a paper for a special issue of a high quality journal (impact factor between 1,5 and 2). The journal will be announced on the website as soon as we have a final confirmation.

Website

<http://www.humanist-vce.eu/major-activities/conference/the-hague-2018/authors-submission/>

Scientific committee

Nicole VAN NES - SWOV - Netherlands - Chairmann

Andrew MORRIS - University of Loughborough - UK

Mike REGAN - ARRB - Australia

Roberto MONTANARI - RE-Lab - Italia

Tania Dukic Willstrand - VTI - Sweden

Organisation committee

Nicole Van Nes and Maura van Srijp (SWOV)
Lucile Mendoza and Charlotte Voegelé (HUMANIST)

Venue

As we are organising this conference in the Netherlands, the venue will be held at a special location which gives a true flavour of the Netherlands... Madurodam, located in the Hague near Scheveningen Beach, offers a great variety of Dutch highlights in a scenic outdoor miniature park.

Madurodam
George Maduroplein 1
2584 RZ Den Haag
The Netherlands

<https://www.madurodam.nl/en/discover-the-park/typical-dutch-must-sees/>

